

CONTENTS

Editorial

- 4 Neo-conservative and neo-liberal advances in educational policies: effects of the coup in Brazil

Ivo Dickmann
Cláudia Battestin

Articles

- 8 Educational policy and neoliberalism: the role of the State, the mercantile logic and the construction of subjectivities during the macrism in Argentina

Natalia Stoppami
Alan Baichman
Jorge Alejandro Santos

- 34 The conservative step backwards of the “school with no party” project: an analysis underpinned by Antonio Gramsci’s thinking

Simone de Fátima Flach

- 49 The speaking speech of school movement Without Party

Alexandre Fernando da Silva
José Heleno Ferreira
Carlos Alexandre Vieira

- 66 The state reform and the development of the neoconservative: how its impact the public education

Leonardo Dorneles Gonçalves
Vinícius Ramos Puccinelli

- 83 Capitalist crises and the conjuncture of counter-reforms: what is the place of high school?

Bruno Gawryszewski

- 107 Affirmative actions in Brazil: considerations about racial quotas in the university

Maurício Silva

- 130 How we become teachers of Geography: ordered discourse, neoliberal practice

Bruno Nunes Batista

- 154 Flags, anthems and chants: health squads’ civic weapons in Santa Catarina (1941-1953)

Michele Metelski
Celso João Carminati

Interview

- 171 Nita Freire: stories shared with the greatest brazilian educator and that help us to understand the current moment

Áurea Eleotério Soares Barroso

Review

- 183 Think public school in times of micro resistances

Gilberto Oliari
Elisete Medianeira Tomazetti
Jessica Erd Ribas
Raquel Brum Sturza